For the Freedom of all Nations

116

C. Carr.

Words and Music by

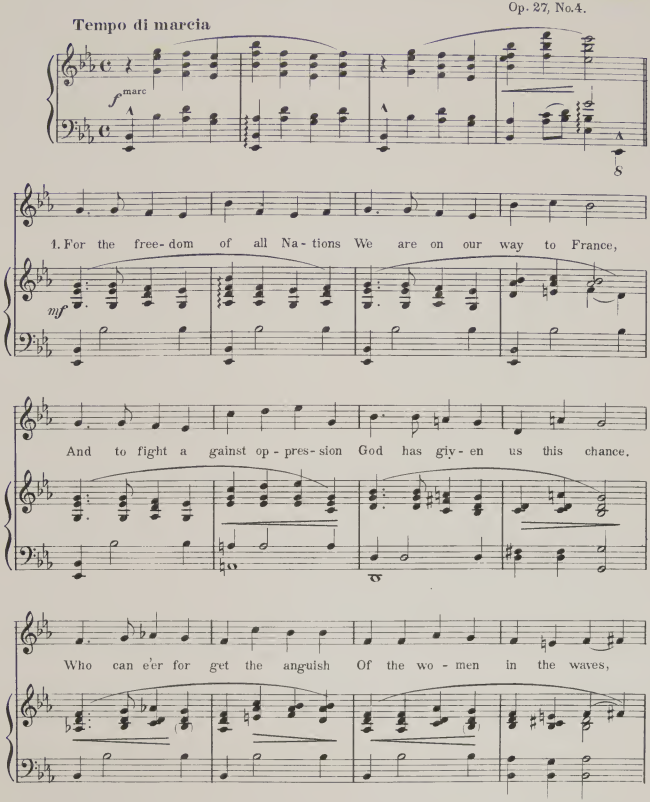
Eleanor Everest Freer

The whole First Edition of this Song has been donated to the National Surgical Dressings Committee The entire Gross receipts from it's sale go to the Fund intact.

WILL ROSSITER
"The Chicago Publisher"
71 W Randolph St Chicago Ill.

For the Freedom of All Nations

Words and Music by
ELEANOR EVEREST FREER.
Op. 27, No. 4.



Tempo di marcia
f marc
1. For the free-dom of all Na-tions We are on our way to France, mf
And to fight a gainst op-pres-sion God has giv-en us this chance.
Who can e'er for get the anguish Of the wo-men in the waves,

British Copyright Secured Copyright MCMXVII by Will Rossiter Chicago All Rights Reserved

ad lib
As the Lus - i - tan - ia's mast-head Sank, to please the Prus - sian knaves.
f marc
2. To at - tack our fel - low - be - ings On pur - suits of peace - ful aim.
3. Shall we see our homes de - mol - ished As in Bel-gium and in France,
mf

Did a foe a - rise, in ang - er, And with - out a law - ful claim
Wo - men tak - en in - to slav - 'ry, For their child-ren not a chance?
Rob the free - dom of all na - tions_ Eng-land, Bel-gium, Rus - sia, France_
Not a mo - ment must we tar - ry, Shoul-der knap-sack, gun or lance,
ad lib
To a - venge them is our du - ty. And Old Glo - ry must ad - vance.
Vic - to - ry must be our watchword As we're marching on thro' France.
f marc
1
2
Encl. Ending
D.S.